

MURSION[®]

Mursion Inc. offers both students and professionals cutting-edge, simulation-based training opportunities for mastering the skills necessary to excel within their field. This revolutionary experience takes place in a mixed-reality virtual simulator helmed by an Interactor.

An Interactor possesses a multi-faceted and unique skill set including:

- Performing experience (acting, improvisation, standardized patient and/or role-playing)
- The innate ability to listen and respond with sincerity, empathy, and emotional honesty
- A solid grasp of basic computer and video conferencing skills
- Experience with (or interest in learning) gaming technology

Additional advantages include:

- The ability to match and maintain distinct, realistic voices
- The capacity to understand and honestly portray vastly different psychological profiles
- Knowledge of pop culture
- An Associate's or Bachelor's Degree

The training schedule for this project is Monday - Friday, Aug. 8 - Aug. 19, 11am-5pm.

The projected hours of available work is 10-19 hours per week with most hours being between 8am and 5pm Monday thru Friday. There will be some need for evening hours to cover some sessions.

All training and subsequent work is compensated at $15/hour.

All training and work will take place:

UTRGV, College of Education and P-16 Integration
1201 University Drive
Edinburg, TX 78539

Auditions will be held July 13-20th via Skype.

If interested, please complete the following:

- Email auditions@mursion.com with the subject line "UTRGV Submission"
- Write a brief explanation as to why you may be a good fit for this position
- Note whether you have full availability for the training dates
- Attach your headshot and resume

If you are selected from the initial pool of candidates, we will email you more information and a link to sign up for an audition slot.

