

AUDITION

January 6th

Two Actors needed for supporting role in local short film

Production Title:

Preservation

Screenplay by Stephen Loughran

Directed by John MacKenzie

Audition Date and Location:

Sunday, January 6th 2018, 2-6pm – Arts At The Armory Somerville,

Synopsis:

James and Samantha's marriage is pushed to the brink when James slips into a deep depression after being laid off due to his job movement overseas. Samantha attempts to hold their marriage together, but the strain of it all begins to affect her performance at work.

Character Breakdown:

Paul: Heavy set Caucasian male in his late 30s early 40s. A tightly wound restaurant manager does an amazing job logistically running an establishment, but lacks the ability to manage dynamic personalities. Nina, an employee, goes out of her way to exploit Paul's personality flaw, which Paul is accustomed to. Although, things become problematic when Paul attempts to correct Samantha's slip in performance.

Felipé: Early to mid-20s, tall, slim, gay male, of any ethnic background (foreign accent preferred)
Early to mid-20s. Felipé serves as Samantha's barback at the restaurant.

To obtain an audition slot please visit

<http://www.loughranmedia.com/topic/auditions/>