

CASTING COUPLES

NOW CASTING fun, twenty & thirty-something couples who both have aspirational jobs and aren't particularly planning on having kids.

These couples work hard, but because of their combined salaries have a disposable income that allows them a luxurious lifestyle that their couple friends with kids are all envious of.

This docu-series will follow a collective of dynamic and affluent couples in a city that live their lives to the fullest -- because instead of saving for a future family they can afford splurging on themselves.

Please email couple submissions or inquiries to tgpcasting1@gmail.com. For submissions include names, location, occupations, a few photos & social media links (if applicable).
