"Achieving the 'American dream' has always been a priority for the Rodriguez family...Through vignettes of events we meet Alejandro's family: Marta, the backbone of his success; Rosa avoiding a traumatic past by focusing on school to becoming the first in the family to finish college; Jorge, struggling to understand the difference between choosing a life between school or street smarts. But as the Rodriguez family begins to divide and take different paths, there is only one strong woman that unites the memory and the meaning of the family, none other than Abue! "
