FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Local Filmmakers Casting For New Film Tackling Addiction, Forgiveness and Redemption

Sean Vaughn and Kenneth Nelson are no strangers to making films tackling tough social issues. Their award winning film, Love Positive, explores the romantic relationship between two friends - one living in secret with HIV. Their first film, Tolerance, explores the measures we take to uphold our beliefs, even if it costs us everything.

Their new film, Sincerely, Brenda is no different. "I wanted to create a film where we see three men, particularly, three black males in a devastatingly vulnerable situation," said Kenneth who wrote the screenplay. Nelson will also direct and produce the film adds, "Too many men buy into the "machismo culture" and it's slowly killing them." The film takes place in Detroit and is about a father recovering from addiction having to face his two estranged sons, after their mother dies suddenly. "This film will heal many people", says Sean Vaughn, executive producer and actor. " We create films that resonate a message of change."

Despite big film incentive perks dissolving in Michigan, Nelson and Vaughn believe it's the best place for their projects. "There's so much talent in Michigan and we want to create opportunities for artists to showcase those talents," said Nelson. Don't let this opportunity slip away. This might be your big break! Nelson and Vaughn are looking for:

- Male and Female Actors (18 - 60 years of age)
- All ethnicities are welcomed
- Local to the Lansing and Detroit area

Auditions are February 10th, 2018
11:00am - 4:00pm
Christ Kingdom Builders Church
719 E. Grand River Ave, Lansing, MI 48906
