

The image shows three dancers in elaborate, colorful costumes with large, feathered wings. They are captured in a dynamic, low-to-the-ground pose on a dark stage. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the textures of their costumes and the intensity of their expressions. The dancer on the left is in a crouched position, looking towards the center. The middle dancer is also crouched, looking forward. The dancer on the right is in a more active pose, with one leg extended back and arms reaching forward, looking towards the center. The overall mood is one of movement and energy.

FLIGHT!

PEGGY CHOY DANCE

Peggy Choy Dance & Kumble Theater present a unique and exciting performance for school-age youth!

The world's birds take a dangerous flight to find the Rose of Love with a surprising ending! World-class dancers bring Afro-Asian fusion of hip-hop, martial arts and Asian dance to the stage.

Performing FLIGHT!

Inspired by the great Persian poem Conference of the Birds by Attar, the famous sufi poet of 12th century Iran.

Coming to Brooklyn's Kumble Theater
October 21-22, 2019

Show times: 10 am and 11:45 am (One hour show time)
Reservations required at: info@kumbletheater.org

FLIGHT! minireel: Peggy Choy Dance Facebook and PeggyChoyDance.com

This performance is suitable for children age 9+ and adults.