Scenes From A Broken Life

A play by Marisa Ray

CASTING NOTICE

Location:	Edmondson Pike Public Library (5501 Edmondson Pike, Nashville, TN 37211)
Date and Time:	Saturday, November 22nd from 1-4pm
Project:	Scenes From A Broken Life
Production Company:	The Suitcase Artists Productions
Casting Director:	Marisa Ray
Email:	thesuitcaseartists@gmail.com
Production Location:	Nashville, TN
Production Date(s):	Approx mid-May 2015 (rehearsals begin Jan 2015)
Compensation:	unpaid/credit

Project Description:
Scenes From A Broken Life is an experimental play that provides climactic snapshots into the lives of several mildly intertwined people. Watch regular moments act as turning points for these fragile characters, catapulting them into their broken places of addiction, self-hatred and the urge to run.

Characters-Male
- Todd Barnes (lead) ages 35-50, caucasian,
- Andrew Whitfield (lead) ages 35-45, caucasian
- Dr. Harris (supporting) ages 40-55, caucasian
- Gambler #1 (supporting) ages 25-60, any ethnicity
- Gambler #2 (supporting) ages 25-60, any ethnicity
- Gambler #3 (supporting) ages 40-65, any ethnicity
- Meeting attendees (5 supporting) ages 25 and up, any ethnicity

Characters-Female
- Angela Barnes (lead) ages 35-50, caucasian
- Victoria Platt (supporting) ages 21-35, any ethnicity
- Monica Harris (supporting) ages 35-55, caucasian
- Meeting attendees (3 supporting) ages 25 and up, any ethnicity

Instructions:
Candidates must submit an audition profile on www.thesuitcaseartists.com. Following the completion of audition profile, candidates please send headshot and resume to thesuitcaseartists@gmail.com. We will then confirm your appointment time for your audition.

About Us:
The Suitcase Artists are a collaborative group of Creatives, committed to using drama, fine art and music to impact the hearts and lives of others. We employ theatrical interpretation, visual art forms, and musical performance to ignite change in the world around us, while providing a safe place of creative restoration for our artists.