

CASTING CALL

"Clyde"

Seeking talented actors for a short film, shooting in Chicago the first week of August. Directed by Joshua Giordan, and produced by Hannah Faris

Clyde is the story of an old man, seeking community from the thousands of photographs he surrounds himself with. Although he appears happy, he is weighed down by a deep secret. At its heart, Clyde is an illumination of loneliness, and the inherent human desire for connection.

Seeking:

Clyde: Male, 70's-80's

An 'adorable old man,' harboring something secret. Appears joyful, but masks an unrelenting loneliness.

Marcie: Female, early 20's.

Upbeat and quirky, but can also show great sympathy. Must have bangs, or be willing to cut hair for them.

Woman: Female, 50's-60's.

Complacent, disinterested in her job and interactions with others.

*Seeking non-union actors.
