

BE A PART OF THIS GROUNDBREAKING SOCIAL EXPERIMENT!

Whether you love them or hate them, RESPECT them or SUSPECT them, we can all agree that the men and women in blue get to see things we don't. And that's the problem.

From the producers of POLICE WOMEN, CATFISH and EXTREME MAKEOVER: HOME EDITION comes a new series that aims to break down the barriers between law enforcement and the rest of us. With ultimate transparency, this show will help you discover what it's like to protect and serve.

In this social experiment, a major law enforcement agency will put you through the rigors of police academy training, pair you with one of their own, and place you in the line of duty.

We've all posted hashtags and tweets and preached to our own choirs. But the answers are not in our social media or in the headlines of the press. They're in the streets. On the beat. And for the first time ever, it will be your job to find them.

We are looking for men and women from all walks of life – activists, educators, parents, students – to be a part of this extraordinary television project. To apply, email us at theforce@criticalshows.com with your name, age, location, a photo, and a little info about yourself.
