

Julie Sides- a tough, successful realtor, very proud of the fact that she's been named West Side Realtor of the Month. She is Dan's fiancé and a controlling, overbearing person whose five year plan is to build a better Dan. Clearly the go-getter of the two, Julie is nevertheless supportive of Dan and seems to really love him.

INT. OFFICE - DAY

A man sits at a desk. Julie enters.

JULIE

Hi, I'm here for the three o'clock admissions interview.

MAN

(checking calendar) Oh, I had a Dan Thompson down for three.

JULIE

I'm Dan's fiancé Julie. Dan's running a little late, but we can just get started without him.
(clears throat, refers to index cards)
There are three reasons why Lamont dental school needs Dan Thompson--

MAN

I'm sorry, why don't we just wait for him to get here.

JULIE

Okay, Dan's not actually going to be coming.

MAN

What?

JULIE

He doesn't know I'm here. Or that he applied to dental school. But that doesn't change the fact that...
(back to index cards)
Dan Thompson has always had a special relationship with teeth--

MAN

Okay, I don't know what's happening here. He doesn't know he applied to dental school?

JULIE

Look, mister. Dan doesn't know what he wants. But I do. And I really think this is the perfect fit. I know Dan's got his limits -- I'm not saying he should be like a real doctor, no offense, but this is something he could do!

MAN

I just don't think we can admit a student who has no interest in going and hasn't actually applied.

JULIE

Well I think that's kind of an unreasonable position.

MAN

It's not going to work.

JULIE

Okay, fine.

Julie gathers her things and gets up to leave.

JULIE (CONT'D)

That's what you say. But I say when someone wants something this bad, you know, for someone else, nothing is going to stand in the way of that person's dreams. You know, for the other person. Good day.

She exits.
