

FADE IN:

1 INT. GOVERNOR'S OFFICE - DAY

1

LAURA GARCIA(20s, HISPANIC) interviews Governor MATTHEW GONZALEZ(30s, Hispanic) as he sits in his desk. She scribbles down notes as she talks to him.

LAURA

Governor Gonzalez, what's it feel like winning the re-election?

MATTHEW

Well Ms. Garcia, I must say I am feeling exceptionally great. It was a tiring campaign but I'm glad that it's finished and that the people of this great state to have chosen me again.

LAURA

Many residents are happy with how you have been tackling the issue of unemployment and help create more jobs. What can residents expect in your upcoming term?

Matthew reaches over for a glass of water and then sits back to take a drink.

MATTHEW

Well, I'm sure residents can expect some big changes, that will benefit lots of people living in this great state. Especially those here in the capital.

Matthew flashes his huge charismatic smile that helped win many of voters in the election.

LAURA (O.S.)

Thank you very much Governor. It has been a pleasure interviewing you.

CUT TO:

2 ~~INT. HALLWAY TO THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE - MOMENTS LATER~~

2

~~Laura exits the office and stops by to talk to the secretary.~~