

CASTING CALL

SHOOTING DAY: March 4, 2021

LOCATION: St. James Campus
George Brown College

Writer/Director

Karen del Castillo

Jessy (30-35)

Jessy is an independent woman who loves freedom. She and Hannah have been the best of friends for a long time. Jessy trusts Hannah and sees her as an intelligent woman who has gone far in her chosen career. Jessy has struggled with her new role as a mother and often feels vulnerable and cut off from life.

Hannah (30-35)

Hannah is a woman with a strong personality, dominant, in control and persevering. Life has taught her to go after what she wants and don't take no for an answer. Since Jessy's marriage, the friendship has changed and the two, who were once inseparable, have not been able to spend as much time together.

Unpaid/student film

Food and transportation provided

Log-line

After having a romantic encounter with her best friend, Jessy questions weather the friendship will continue.

If interested please email your resume, headshots and demo reel to kdelcastillo2108.kdc@gmail.com with your name, contact info and which role you're auditioning for.

All covid precautions and guidelines will be followed