

Casting for A LITTLE BIT OF ICE CREAM

A short film about a teenage girl already struggling with a toxic home life whose little brother disappears while in her care at an ice cream shop.

This is a Southern Methodist University student film project being directed by junior film major Pavi Saravanan and shot in Dallas, TX.

Roles

Raiya

16 to 20-year-old white female. Raiya is stubborn, impulsive, and struggles with dealing with her parents' toxic relationship and the news that they're getting a divorce. Her little brother means the world to her and is her rock.

Max

5 to 8-year-old white male. Max is playful, smart, and hyper. He loves spending time with his sister and his favorite thing to do with her is going to the ice cream shop.

Dom

40 to 50-year-old white male. Dom is stern, aggressive, and controlling.

Ruby

30 to 45-year-old white women. Ruby is persistent, mentally drained, and loving in her own way.

Bill

50 to 60-year-old male, any ethnicity. Bill is sweet, caring, and owns the Ice Cream Shop.

Anticipated shooting dates: October 8-10th, 2021.

Location: Dallas, Texas

Non-union,unpaid

Video auditions only. Submission Deadline: 09/30/2021

If you are interested or have any questions please email pavi.castingcall@gmail.com or text (972)-795-3253